COMISKEY PARK, CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Kerr's phenomenal pitching gave the White Sox the victory in the third world series game here today, the score being 3 to 0. Kerr allowed the Cincinnati Reds three hits, scattered through as many innings, and one base on balls, and at no time during the entire game, were they even in a dangerous position to score. Fisher pitched fair ball for Cincinnati but his fielding was not so good, an error by him being a contributing factor in the White Sox scoring. The Sox, however, obtained seven hits and several of them were at fairly opportune times.

WHITE SOX PARK, CHI., Oct. 3.—Perfect weather and what promised to be a capacity attendance greeted the Cincinnati Reds and Chicago White Sox in the third game of the world's baseball championship series of 1919 here today.

At noon the far reaches of bleacher stands showed a mass of humanity, a thousand of whom had camped outside the gates all night. The bleachers were about three-fourths occupied while the left field pavilion was almost filled and the remainder of the reserved seats were being rapidly occupied.

A band occupied a position near third base and entertained the crowds. The huge grand-stand was practically deserted two hours before play began.

Vocalists Out.

At 12:15 a duo of popular song vocalists with large megaphones became busy repeating their selections to the various stands.

Wounded Soldier First

When the gates to Comiskey Park were opened at 9:25 a. m., the first man to enter the pavilion was Roland Ryan, a wounded soldier from Fort Sherman who had been standing in line all night. Ryan's home is at Elyria, Ohio, and he is recuperating from wounds received in the Argonne with the 37th division of the United States army. He appeared at the ticket window at 7 o'clock last night and prepared for a long siege by providing himself with a soap box for a seat. He had a small basket of lunch and a pocket-full of cigarettes.

Daylight today saw 5,000 fans gathered at the bleacher and pavilion gates waiting for the 10 o'clock opening but time portals were actually thrown wide, fully 10,000 lined the streets leading to the park. Police reserves flanked the crowd on all sides while sailors and marines assisted the officers of the law.

There were hundreds of breaks in the long lines where card games have sprung up on improvised tables, while toward breakfast time the habit of "holding place" while its occupant grabbed sandwiches and coffee became general and the unwritten law of respecting the ownership of a "place" was observed rigidly.

Sale Price Increases

By 6 o'clock the sale price of a place in the line was $2 but by 8:30 this had been increased to $5.

It appeared as though the weather man who rules over the destinies of the Chicago realm refused to be outdone by his contemporary at Cincinnati, for the day was as perfect for baseball as either of the two opening days in the Ohio city.

Both teams arrived in good condition and reports from their headquarters indicated that every man had come through the night with not even an attack of nervousness.

Everyone Fit

"The boys all slept well and are ready to put up the same kind of ball here that they displayed in Cincinnati," said Manager Pat Moran, shortly after his aggregation arrived. Manager Gleason also reported that every man on his team was feeling in great shape, even John Collins, who had a slight attack of cold yesterday morning, having recovered completely.

The Reds made their appearance on the field at 12:40 and stuck close to the dugout. They were closely followed by the White Sox who immediately began batting practice. The crowd cheered both teams. James served up benders to the Gleason lineup, which showed that Kerr was taking his regular position in the batting order. Ruether, Sallee and Ring warmed up in front of the Cincinnati bench.

Jackson Cheered

The Sox took the field for final practice at 1:45 and Jackson was given an ovation by the left field bleacher fans, and Fisher warmed up for Cincinnati and Kerr for the White Sox.

Umpire Quigley was behind the plate; Nallin on first; Rigler on second; Evans on third.

BELGIAN ROYALTY GIVEN WARM WELCOME WHILE THEY STAY IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The king and queen of the Belgians with Prince Leopold, heir apparent to the throne, cast aside today the royal "incognito," which had shrouded them since their welcome at noon yesterday to the United States by Vice President Marshall and boarded the yacht Noma in the Hudson river to make their "formal" entry into New York.

The "incognito" which the king and queen chose to assume upon their arrival yesterday was as novel to New Yorkers as was the actual fact of presence in the city for the first time in history of a reigning king and queen. The "incognito" proved only partially effective so far as Albert was concerned. When he went for an automobile tour of the city with Prince Leopold, the well known face of the "soldier king" was frequently recognized and he was fervently cheered.

Queen Elizabeth's incognito, aided by a heavy white veil, proved more effective. Accompanied by the Baroness De Caraman Chimay, her lady in waiting, and the Baroness De Cartier de Marchienne, wife of the Belgian ambassador to the United States, the queen visited several Fifth avenue department stores and made small purchases from the sales women, who failed to realize the rank of their quiet customer.

Couldn't Get in Show

In the evening the king and queen essayed to visit a Broadway moving picture show, but the theatre they visited displayed standing room only. Finally they were forced to abandon the plan.

The queen with her lady in waiting and the Baroness De Cartier de Marchienne, visited a cabaret, accompanied by Baron De Caraman Chimay. King Albert spent the evening chatting with friends.

The royal party will remain in New York until Saturday, when they will start on a tour of the nation which will take them to the Pacific coast and back again to Washington, where they will be received at the White House. The first scheduled stop is Boston, where the Royal party is expected to arrive on Sunday morning.

STEEL PLANTS RUNNING NEARER TO NORMAL AS MORE MEN RESUME WORK

TREATIES ARE ALL RATIFIED BY THE FRENCH

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
GARY, Ind., Oct. 3.—Alarmed at the defection of 1500 men from their ranks yesterday strike leaders today exerted every influence at their command to keep their lines intact. A series of meetings were held at which addresses were delivered by labor leaders and the picket lines were strengthened. As a result of this activity apparently not more than 200 strikers returned to work today at the Indiana Steel Company plant where units in nearly every department were in operation. Officials of the company stated that they now have a force of about 6,000 employed. The plant is said to be operating at about 50 per cent of its capacity.

At the plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company, it was said the company was running units in nearly every department on a basis of about 75 per cent capacity.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Oct. 3.—Little change was noticeable in the strike situation at the Bethlehem Steel Company's plants today. Both sides again issued conflicting statements, the company declaring the strike virtually over, while union leaders claimed at least 85 per cent of the men are out and that their ranks are being augmented daily.

Strike leaders said today that the bricklayers' and plasterers' unions had joined the walkout.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Officials of steel mills in the Chicago district pointed to reports of increasing numbers of workmen resuming their tasks, during the past two days and indications by many other workers of their intention to return to work as upholding their prediction that production today would amount to 50 per cent of normal. Labor leaders maintained their statements, however, that appreciable inroads into the ranks of the strikers were not being made.

No Change as Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Oct. 3.—Attention in the Youngstown steel district today turned again to the Ohio works of the Carnegie Steel company to watch resumption of the daily test as to whether enough men can be secured for an attempt at production, which would be the first made since all plants were closed down on September 23. Observers have reported constantly increasing numbers of men entering the plant each morning since the company adopted the policy of giving unimportant work to all who applied, and announcements by mill officials indicate that an attempt to resume manufacture is likely at any time.

Observers reported that the number of men entering the plant this morning was about the same as yesterday. Mill officials asserted this showed a gain for them, saying that many of those who went to work yesterday remained in the plant. Very few pickets appeared today and by 7:30 most of these had disappeared. Officials would make no statement as to when production would be attempted.

Demand Free Speech

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 3.—The right of union leaders for the "right of free speech and free assemblage" in Allegheny county continues to be the most interesting feature of the steel workers' strike in the Pittsburgh district. According to strike leaders, county officials and authorities of municipalities are avoiding responsibility for prohibiting mass meetings as a result are "buck passing" and they say, the workers' lawful right to assemble and hear speeches is being abused.

Strike leaders announced today that they had sent evidence concerning the conflict of authority on the holding of meetings to William Z. Foster, secretary of the strikers' national committee, who is in Washington. He will bring the matter to the attention of the senate committee investigating the strike.

PRESIDENTS CONDITION IS SERIOUS

AGITATORS CAUSE NEGRO UPRISING IN WHICH 16 LIVES HAVE BEEN LOST

Five Whites Killed Thus Far, Wholesale Arrests Made

Many Wounded are Recovering, Troops Disarming Blacks.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH) HELLENA, Ark., Oct. 3.—With military control established at Helena, 18 miles south of this city, center of negro disorders which for 48 hours have thrown Helena and Phillips county in turmoil, and other villages where the negro population predominates, the task of pacification was declared well under way today.

Two negroes, who failed to obey a command of military patrol early today, were fired on by the soldiers near Helena and killed, and another was wounded. A fourth member of the party was arrested. Otherwise with the exception of the firing of several shots, comparatively quiet prevailed in the country districts.

The white casualties as a result of clashes which occurred at intervals since the first outbreak. This day night, stood today at five dead and five wounded. With the exception of the Phillips county sheriff who was removed, wounded all of the injured were reported recovering.

HELLENA, Ark., Oct. 3.—Federal troops from Camp Pike and local possemen and state officials on riot duty at Helena a small town near here where race disturbances have occurred intermittently since Tuesday, resulting in 16 known deaths early today prepared to resume a search for arms and ammunition scattered by negroes in that locality.

The race trouble, late reports indicated was fomented by agitators who had aroused the negroes to participate in an organized uprising, and the authorities were determined to prevent further trouble by an armed possession of all firearms in the hands of negroes in the district.

An announcement made at 11:15 a. m. today in Helena said that about 100 rifles had been taken from negroes.

Whole sale arrests of negroes have been made according to officials who announced today that 20 prisoners had been taken to the district house at Helena. The arrested were guarded by federal troops at Helena and 10 had been taken to Helena.

The known white dead in connection with the fighting numbered five including one soldier, corporal Luther Lyles whose father lives in St. Louis. A five white men have been wounded. These negroes are known to have taken part in the fighting and officials said that a number probably would be released as soon as they were shown to be innocent.

The feeling prevailed among officials here today was that the worst of the trouble was over.

A large amount of literature tending to show that the outbreak was due to propaganda circulated among negro tenant farmers making rose and promises if the negroes would band together and arm themselves has been taken possession of by military and civil authorities. The ac-

WILSON FAMILY ENROUTE TO WASHINGTON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH) WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Admirals Grayson and Stitt and Dr. Ruffin, were in consultation for about two hours and this delayed the issuing of the usual ten o'clock bulletin as to the president's condition.

"The president's condition is unchanged," Dr. Grayson's bulletin issued at 12:15 p. m., today said.

Supplementing his official bulletin, Dr. Grayson told newspaper correspondents that the president's mind was keen and alert and his physical condition fairly good. He also is taking some nourishment.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—There was no improvement in President Wilson's condition this morning and Rear Admiral Grayson, his physician held another consultation with Rear Admiral Stitt, of the naval medical school, and Dr. Sterling Ruffin, Mrs. Wilson's family physician, who participated in yesterday's consultation with Dr. F. A. Dercum, of Philadelphia.

The president slept some last night. With him is a trained nurse who is assisting Mrs. Wilson in caring for the patient. The president has no temperature and his heart action is good, it was said at the White House.

Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo, and Mrs. Francis Sayre, daughters of the president are on their way to Washington. Mrs. McAdoo will arrive this afternoon from New York. Mrs. Sayre is coming from Williamstown, Mass. It was said that while members of the family had not been summoned to Washington, Mrs. McAdoo and Mrs. Sayre had expressed a desire to come. Miss Margaret Wilson, the third daughter is now in Washington.

Orders of the physicians that the president be kept absolutely quiet will be strictly enforced, Secretary Tumulty said today. No official business will be brought to the executive's attention no matter how pressing, Mr. Tumulty said, and no one except the members of the immediate family will be permitted to see him.

The president was informed late yesterday of the defeat in the senate of the Hall amendments to the peace treaty and of the ratification of the treaty by the French chamber of deputies and this news apparently cheered him considerably, Mr. Tumulty said.

It was announced officially that the turn in the president's condition would not interfere with the industrial conference next week. In the event the president is not able on Monday to address a communication to the conference, Secretary Tumulty will notify them of the president's desires regarding the election of a permanent presiding officer.

R. R. Outlook Is Brighter In Great Britain

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Hope for an early strike settlement of the railroad strike which seemed to brighten yesterday faded last night when it became known that efforts to mediate between the government and the National Union of Railway Men had failed. But the situation is grave is generally admitted.

Officials of the transport workers' union will seek another interview with Premier Lloyd-George today and there will be no meetings of executives of various unions involved in the controversy for the purpose of considering the course of action that is to be followed.

Premier Lloyd-George insists that men must resume work, before negotiations can be reopened. Significance is attached in some quarters to the fact that the miners' federation was represented at conferences yesterday. An executive of one of the Scottish miners' associations said yesterday:

"The time has come for miners to take national action in support of the railway men."

FLOODS IN SPAIN. MADRID, Oct. 3.—Interruption of railway traffic and telegraph communication prevents details of conditions in eastern Spain, where torrential rains have fallen from becoming known. It is reported that 18 bodies have been discovered at Castagona and five at Alicante. At the latter place large ball stones were piled in some places to a depth of more than six feet. Many houses are collapsing under the weight.

SUGAR SUPPLY IS CUT; NO REASON IS GIVEN BY DEALERS

Giving to the fact that wholesale grocers in Lima have refused to make any statement regarding the outlook in the sugar situation, little information as to whether there is a great scarcity or not could not be obtained today. One wholesale dealer stated this morning that they were unable to give out any information as they are then limited by the retail grocers.

According to one large retail grocer, Lima will be forced to get along on a two pound limit for the time being as they themselves are limited in the supplies received from the wholesale dealers. Dayton is facing a sugar shortage, and have to be contented with just one pound issued at a time to a customer.

By the middle of this month the beet sugar from the nearby refineries at Otrava and in Putnam county will be ready for shipment, and will help somewhat to relieve the situation here.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears after another application of two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

OHIO GELDING WINS PREMIER EVENT

Prince Loree Captures Rich Trotted Fourth In the Event Last Year

LEXINGTON, Ky., October 3.—The $5,000 Transylvania Stakes, the annual championship race for trotters of the aged division, was decided for the thirty-first time, and was easily won by the Ohio gelding, Prince Loree, which got fourth money out of the contest last year.

Prince Loree was foaled in 1911 at Walnut Hall Farm; was sold as a yearling to Walter R. Cox for $600, who traded him along with Lee Axworthy to the Pastime stable for Sir Thomas Lipton and a cash bonus.

The Pastime folks discarded him to Al Pennock, of Cleveland, for $60, and he passed him on to Captain David Shaw, master of Beau Ideal Farm at Cleveland, for $125, and turned over to Trainer Mike Mc-

LAYMAN 18 YEARS AGO, IS NOW BISHOP OF GREATEST P. E. DIOCESE IN AMERICA

Bishop Charles Summer Burch. Ordained a priest only 13 years ago, although he is 64 years old, Charles Summer Burch has been elected Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York, the wealthiest and most powerful branch of the denomination in America. Before he became a clergyman, Bishop Burch was managing editor of the Evening Press at Grand Rapids, Mich.

Devitt, who has made money and history with the son of Prince McKinney and Dolorio, by Delwarch.

The race was under the three-heat plan, the third heat going to Royal Mac and giving him second money for the third successive year. This is the second time McDevitt has driven a Transylvania winner, his first success being in 1910 with Captain Shaw's team.

In the pooling before the race Prince Loree brought $1100, Royal Mac $500, Wilkes Brewer $500, Lou Todd $100, Hollywood Kar $350, Direct Forbes $500, Easton $150, Hair Reaper $110 and Brescia $50. The total being $3,790.

The 2 09 trot was won easily in two heats by the Chicago gelding, Don Delapex, driven by Murphy and favorite at $100 to $50 for the field.

The 2 10 pace proved a pudding for the Canadian mare Louise Gratton, she winning the three heats quite at the pleasure of her driver, Mr. Fleming.

SPENCER PHONE SUBSCRIBERS STRIKE ON A RATE RAISE

Two hundred telephone subscribers in Spencer and vicinity have either ordered their telephones taken out or have discontinued using their phone, owing to a letter received by rural subscribers from the Spencer Telephone Company, informing them the monthly rate would be increased $1.25 to $1.50 effective the first of October. This is the second increase in rate within the past year, and although the farmers willingly paid the first increase, they refuse to pay the second.

The subscribers, numbering 201 have all signed a paper that if the company persisted in holding to the new rate, they would all have their phones taken out. The directors of the phone company have met a committee of the subscribers several times, but so far no settlement has been reached. The telephone company asserts with the high cost of labor and material and to keep the plant self-supporting, it was absolutely necessary to make the increase.

RALPH DIXON IS BEFORE COURT AGAIN

Another chapter in the Ralph and Margaret Dixon case was started this morning when Ralph pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault preferred by Margaret. He waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the grand jury.

Some months ago, Dixon filed suit for divorce from his wife. She immediately instigated a $10,000 alienation suit against her husband's parents and three other women. The cases hung fire for many months, and only last week it was decided to patch up old difficulties and the cases was dismissed.

CALLED TO PLAN A DEACONESS HOME

It is the intention of the new company to make this a Mennonite hospital and Deaconess Home.

In the annual tug-of-war between the Freshmen and Sophomores, at Bluffton College, the Freshmen with the aid of several brawny Canadians carried off the honor.

Miss Linda Wittkoski, who was injured in an automobile accident, near McCullough's Lake, last Sunday evening, has returned home.

MRS. ROSE O'CONNOR BUYS A NEW HOME

Mrs. Rose T. O'Connor, widow of the late M. H. O'Connor, has purchased the handsome new home of Hugh G. Pollock, manager of the Grain Company, at 523 West High street. Mrs. O'Connor with her six children recently moved here from her home in Tulsa, Okla., and has already taken possession of her new home. Mr. O'Connor at the time of his death last fall, during the influenza epidemic, was general superintendent of the Texas Oil Company for the Oklahoma and Kansas district. Previous to going west he was connected with the Metropolitan bank.

Mrs. O'Connor is the daughter of Mrs. John S. O'Connor, West McKibben street. Her new home, which was completed early in the spring, is of rockbound stucco, and was purchased at a consideration of about $17,000. Mr. Pollock has removed to his former home in Middle Point.

S. S. Wheeler, senior member of the firm of Wheeler and Bentley, lawyers, was taken seriously ill at his home, 1526 Lakewood avenue last night. FEAR BALLOON RACERS LOST; "OHIO" AHEAD

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 3.—Fear for the safety of Captain Carl W. Dammann and Lieutenant Edward Verheyden, pilot and aid, respectively, of the Wichita Aero club entry in the national championship balloon race was expressed today by Major Albert Bond Lambert, an official of the race.

No word has been received from them since they took the air shortly after 6 p. m. Wednesday when the race started from here.

Apparently the "Ohio" the smallest of the 10 balloons in the contest has traveled farthest of any of the six which have landed. Captain Warren Rasor, its pilot, telegraphed he descended at 1 p. m., yesterday at Perry Sound, Ontario, several hundred miles north of Simcoe county, where the Murphysboro, Ill., entry came to earth.

The gas capacity of the "Ohio" is 50,000 cubic feet, 30,000 less than the other contestants.

XLVI.—WEDDING PREPARATIONS

It was Alice who opened the door onto the screened and vine-hung veranda. She kissed me and held me off admiringly.

"You're looking about sixteen," she declared. "I think I'm going to be jealous of my matron of honor. How do you do, Captain Frazier. It is so good of you to come for Martin. We can't persuade him to go out in Uncle's car, he's so afraid of inconveniencing some one. He is unable to drive his own, you know," she explained to me.

"He's staying here?"
"Of course. What attention could be get from a negro valet at a bachelor apartment?"

"And Miss Lloyd and her aunt are spoiling him more every day, lucky dog!" laughed Captain Frazier.

"Lucky dog" is right," declared a new voice and Martin limped out onto the veranda. "It's great to see you again, Nell, I never did get to thank you for coming down to camp the day I was—hurt, and for the fruit and things you sent. Did I hold you up long, Captain? You're another good friend to drive me about. I swear I'm a regular blooming baby."

I was relieved at Martin's appearances. He looked a trifle thin and the bronze was gone from his face, but otherwise he seemed quite fit, except for the limp.

"Afraid I'm going to have this always, Belt," he said bravely, tapping his leg with his stick, "But Alice is such a game little sport, she says she'll marry me anyway." "I'd just like to see anyone prevent me, most of all you," Alice declared stanchly. "Now you run along Nell and I've got reams of things to decide and plan and the modiste's assistant is due in a few minutes."

"Don't you think he looks fit, considering what he's been through?" she asked as soon as the men had departed.

"Splendid!" I returned warmly. "But you won't marry him crippled as he is, would you?" she asked shrewdly.

I evaded the question. "There will be many heroes who return maimed from the war." Alice was too wise to persist.

"You're very transparent sometimes, Nell, and I see that you don't know what real love is. Some day it may come to you."

"I hope not," I exclaimed involuntarily, "It might be uncomfortable."

"It is adorably uncomfortable," Alice confided. "You're perfectly miserable and wildly happy and worried to death and as carefree as a bird."

"And quite evidently mad!" I finished for her, but she only laughed and ran away to answer a summons to the telephone.

I went down the steps into the garden and dropped into a chair by the pool where the stately swan floated in the cool shadow of rhododendron. Late August had come and midsummer which lay mellow and golden over the land, had penetrated the garden. The flowers were blooming with riotous abandon and the leaves of the ancient trees that arched overhead, already bore the burnished look of the declining season.

Like an understudy to Narcissus, I stopped to admire my own summery reflection in the pool, and unaccountably my thoughts drifted back to Alice's words: "You wouldn't marry him crippled as he is."

To the world, a woman's husband represents her choice of the men who have sought her. She cannot go about blazoning the list of her suitors. But her husband is tacit evidence that she has considered him the most desirable of her opportunities. And sometimes one is forced to wonder what sort of material certain women were given to choose!

My vanity demanded a husband who would make other women anxious. The shallowness of my nature overlooked sterling qualities which lie beneath the surface. I desired something showy, something insistently commanding admiration. I wanted the world of men and women to look at my husband and say of me: "She must have had many opportunities for a brilliant marriage."

And I knew that Paul was not the man to inspire that anxious statement.

A Chance to Live

(By Zoe Beckley)

Who's to Blame?

Annie moved on, through little knots of chattering women, to Rose Gubins' shop. Rose was excited over the afternoon's happening.

"Come in the back," said she, "and let's drink a glass of tea! I'm all up-let. Where is yet coming? Did you see the paper? They're going in the war, we're us' Shuh!" And Rose laid her palms to her temples and rocked in wordless cogitation.

"I didn't see it," said Annie sitting down at the table with the brown-mottled cloth cover. Rose's living room while her hostess bustled around making tea. Of course it means more trouble.

"Trouble! Ah! But listen. I don't blame those women out there. They blame me, touch. They blame every one that sells. They don't understand we have to pay just the same as they do. I'm crazy with the price of things. Their yell when I ask forty-eight cents for eggs, and me making two cents a dozen profit. It's the same with the smoked fish. Half the time I can't even get it. And if my customers can't get it they go somewhere else to buy. I got to charge six cents a loaf for the small white bread. I ain't allowed to sell it for less.

"It's the same with butter and cheese and milk and everything I got in my store. I don't make a profit on half the things in stock, Annie. It's the truth, I should live so!" Annie smiled at Rose's colloquial expression and gave her shoulder an affectionate squeeze.

"I believe you, dear. And I'm sorry for those women out there, too. I see their side of it. They've got just so much to spend, and if they haven't got it they can't get it! It's that way with me. Oh, Rose, I get so discouraged sometimes. Do you suppose they'll go

Seen In the Shops

Coque and blonde, the new feathers of the 1919 fall season, are fascinating things that every woman will want to possess, at least every woman who has any desire to look distinctive and different. With these new feathers comes a new movement in trimming. Since they sweep in a manner resembling paradise, they are placed on the chapeau so that they fall on the hair, frequently as low as the shoulder.

Of course, this feather placed elsewhere on the hat would be less eccentric. A tiny, close fitting velvet hat, which has a rolled-in brim, would be very ordinary if it were not for the arrangement of the coque feather trimming which sweeps down over the side of the face and reaches the neck with its tips.

In imitation of the placing of this feather as trimming we find too that a narrow ostrich feather is perched on the side of a small hat and is drawn down over the face to be twisted about the neck to form a tight fitting collar.

WOMAN INJURED BY WILD HORSE

WAPAKONETA, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Dennis Moore, four miles northwest of Wapakoneta, was seriously injured Wednesday, when run down by a horse owned by B. F. Minnich, of Santa Fe. Mr. Moore recently sold his farm to Mr. Minnich, and the Moore family had their household goods packed and ready to be transported to the William Freyman farm, east of Wapakoneta, on the St. Johns road, near St. Joseph's cemetery, Wednesday evening, when a horse owned by Mr. Minnich escaped from the barn.

A narrow escape from serious injury was experienced Wednesday afternoon by Cleola Schneider, 12, daughter of Mrs. Matilda Schneider, Hoopingarner street. She was walking on Auglaize street in front of the People's National Bank and noticed several friends on the opposite side of the street, near the Wahner pop corn wagon, and started to walk across the street to join them. YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 3.—When Mike Merganovich's automobile was stuck by an ambulance here last night, the crash uncovered a still in his car, which police say Merganovich was taking to East Youngstown, where two whiskey stills have been seized lately. Merganovich and a companion were arrested.

PUBLIC TO HEAR LIGHT DELIBERATIONS

FIRST MEETING OF COMMITTEE TO BE HELD THIS EVENING

General Committee Cut Down to One Representative from Each Body

TO SUBMIT CONTRACT

Compromise Likely That Will Benefit Every Party to Controversy

The first step in a movement to bring about better lighting conditions in Lima, and at the same time protect the interests of the city, will be taken at a meeting to be held by the Joint Committee of four Lima representative organizations this evening.

Star chamber sessions will be tabooed, and instead the public has been given a hearty invitation to come out and hear every angle of the much discussed—and greatly cursed—controversy over boulevard lights, a municipally owned system for the distribution of electricity for street lighting purposes only, and a new contract with the Ohio Electric company.

Compromise Possible
Those students of the situation who have kept their heads clear and have not allowed themselves to become partisan believe that out of the meeting tonight will grow a compromise feeling that will protect the interests of all concerned, taxpayers, property owners most affected by a boulevard system and the city's future growth, which must always be considered along with the other puzzling angles.

The Ohio Electric has agreed to submit to the committee its tentative contract with council. It has agreed, also, that the approval of the committee must be secured before any other steps are taken.

Committee Cut Down
Announcement was made Friday morning that the personnel of the general committee, made up of the various organization committees, had been cut down. One representative from each organization will become a member of the general committee, which will now be made up as follows:

Rotary Club.—Jno. Boose.
Kiwanis Club.—B. A. Gramm.
Lima Real Estate Board.—A. J. Dunn.
The Citizens Committee.—Dan Morris.
Lima Merchants' Association.—R. B. Dunn.
Lima Automobile Club.—Frank Colwell.
Lima Chamber of Commerce.—Elmer D. Webb

Permanent Chairman.—W. C. Bradley.
Permanent Secretary.—W. H. Clarke.

Meet Friday Night

The first meeting of the general committee will be held at the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. It is expected that the committee will get right down to business and that the whole matter of the future of Lima's street and commercial lighting will be threshed out.

As stated, anyone interested will be permitted to attend the meeting and there will be no secrecy whatever about the deliberations, which are of vital importance to the interests and the future of the city.

NO CROWDING

A reporter in camp where some negro troops were being discharged asked one of them what he was planning to do when he got his release.

"Boys," said the negro, "the last thing after Ah gets mah discharge Ah goes and busts mah second lieutenant on the nose."

"Oh, no you aint," spoke up another, "you is gwine to git in line and take yo' turn."—American Legion Weekly.

ITALY TO RATIFY
PARIS, Oct. 3.—Advice received by the peace conference from Rome have persuaded the members of the supreme council that Italy will ratify the German peace treaty by royal decree. The general opinion in the council is that such a ratification will be valid under the Italian constitution.

It is a season of soft fabrics—of duvetyn, duvet de laine, velour, tricotone, silvertone, and two-tone materials. The suits are elaborately trimmed; beaver, nutria, kolinsky, natural and blended squirrel, Hudson Seal, Australian opossum, ringtail, fitch, stone marten, skunk, Jap mink—all lend their beauty to the autumn suits. In color, the new browns have the preference, with navy blue bidding strongly for favor. Our showing of American reproductions and imported originals offers a wide range of selection.

RAILIES FROM OPERATION

The many friends of George Griffin, of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company who was subjected to a serious operation at 5 o'clock last night at St. Rita's hospital, will be glad to hear that he rallied successfully, and was resting easy today.

Callus? "Gets It Will Peel it Off!"

Nothing on Earth Like Simple "Gets-It" for Corns or Calluses.
A callus, or thickened skin on the sole of the foot, which often makes walking a misery is of the same nature as a corn. "Gets-It" removes it as easily as it does the toughest corn. By using a few drops of "Gets-It" on the callus, you will be able to peel it off with your fingers, in one complete piece just as you would a banana peel. It leaves the skin free and smooth as though you never had a callus. You need no more fussy plasters, sticky tape, "package" bandages, knives or scissors for corns or calluses. "Gets-It" is the national corn remover, the biggest on earth, used by millions. It never fails. You'll work, play and dance at ease in spite of corns.

"Gets-It" the only sure, guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. M'd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
Sold in Lima and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by the Hunter's Drug Store.

WHERE WERE YOU TODAY?

Have you been attending The Times' World's Series parties? If you haven't you certainly have been missing something for it looked like half the city of Lima has been there during the games. And they surely enjoyed a treat. Imagine, getting the game, play by play just as soon as you read about it.

Hundreds of fans have crowded the street and sidewalks in front of The Times building. Yesterday police were forced to keep paths so that vehicles and pedestrians might pass. Oh, they have been record breaking crowds, and they rival the noises made by fans attending the real games when the Reds slip something over on the Sox.

Another nice thing about it is just as soon as the game is over, newsboys are selling Times, containing the plays and scores, on the street. That way, you hear it, then you read about it.
The Times is "covering" the series as it has never before been "covered" in Lima. Besides a corps of competent sport writers, there are employed special writers to tell Lima fans all about the big event.

Markets and Finance

SELLING PRESSURE SENDS STOCKS DOWN

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Shares of the more popular issues were freely offered at the opening of today's stock market, the selling being attributed to the same factors which brought about yesterday's irregular movement. Crucible Steel was again the weak feature, losing 6 points. Declines in allied issues ranged from 1 to 2 points, oils, motors, tobaccos and shippings yielding as much. The few transactions in rails were at moderate reaction. Recoveries in such leaders as United States Steel, equipments and Mexican Petroleum resulted in a general rally before the end of the first half hour.

The rebound carried a number of leaders up 1 to 3 points over yesterday's quotations, but this seemed to serve as a foundation for fresh selling, all gains soon being cancelled. Professional pressure was most marked in speculative shares, such as oils, motors, rubbers and tobaccos where reactions extended from 2 to 7 points. Excepting Crucible, steels and equipments offered better resistance to the liquidating movement which became general in the second hour, even the more responsive issues showing little support. A few substantial rallies followed the opening rate of 7 per cent. for call loans.

CORN WEAKER ON FOREIGN REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Reports of a big break in Argentine corn prices tended today to weaken the corn market here. Opening prices, which ranged from 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 lower, with December 1 1/2, 1 3/4, and May 1 1/4, were followed by moderate additional declines.

Oats sympathized with the weakness of corn notwithstanding brisk demand from the seaboard. After opening unchanged to 1/4 lower, with December unchanged to 1/4 lower the market continued to sag. High quotations on hogs made provisions firm. Business, however, lacked volume.

COUNCILMEN KILL HOPES FOR VOTE ON "MUNY" PLANT

Five Remain Away and Leave No Opportunity for Resolution

CALL WAS ILLEGAL

And Talk of Impeachment of Members Now Goes
By the Boards

Citizens of Lima will not have an opportunity of voting on a $100,000 bond issue for the purpose of the installation of municipal lighting system in November, for the same five council members who refused to attend the special session of council called Wednesday night again refused to attend the adjourned meeting of Thursday night.

No Impeachments
There can be no impeachment proceeding, brought against these members, prominent attorneys declare for the reason that the call of Mayor Simpson to "reconsider" the re-surfacing of the bond issue is not legal. They cite it is not within the power of a mayor to call a meeting for the reconsideration of any matter. The call has to be instigated by one or more members who have to do against the project at the previous meeting. This was not the case with the local body, as those five men who downed the matter have continued their defiant attitude and as a result, the people who elected them to office have been the losers.

Many Spectators
Dozens of interested spectators were in the balcony of Council Chambers last night. In the hopes of a vote, the mayor would be brought to his knees and would reconsider the matter and give the public a chance to show whether or not they desire a municipal lighting system. Forty-five minutes the councilmen present waited in hopes that the other members would appear. At the end of that time however, when they had not put in their appearance, those present decided to call the meeting to order and adjourn. The matter was adjourned.

Call was illegal
It was then cited by Councilman Griebling acting chairman, where the call issued by Mayor Simpson was illegal for two reasons. First for the reason stated above, and second the call was not signed by the Mayor's own handwriting but his name was simply printed with a typewriter.

W. H. Clark, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and secretary of the organizing committee, stated the committee will meet with the light and franchise committee of council the evening of the Chamber of Commerce. The meeting will be in open court, it is understood, and all interested are urged to be present and take a voice in the matter which concerns them so deeply. The committee will discuss the plan to be carried out by the Ohio Electric.

WILLS ARE FILED
Two wills were filed in probate court today. One was the will of the late Thomas A. Weger and was set for hearing October 7, while the other was of the late John Penner. The latter will be proven November 1.

PULL TOGETHER FOR BLESSINGS OF A HIGH ORDER

Nerv-Worth and Nerv-Worth Laxative Tablets Do Wonderful Team Work.

These two famous family medicines unite their forces with happy results for those whose nervous systems are connected with bowel and liver troubles. Nerv-Worth, the liquid generally masters derangements of the liver and bowels, but in some cases there are too deep-seated to surrender quickly and then the Tablets, taken in connection with the liquid do wonderful work. They are especially valuable in cleansing the bowels for those whose habits of constipation do not readily yield to the laxative properties of Nerv-Worth. The liquid, a bottle of Nerv-Worth and a box of the Tablets form a combination without equal in overcoming all of the nerves, stomach, bowels and liver. Butler's Drug Stores sell Nerv-Worth in Lima at Main and Kibby, The Central at Main and High, Everybody's, Main and Vine, and Hunters, 49 Public Square. Success in Coming City
Campaign

Democratic headquarters for the conduct of the city campaign have been established in Room 4 Morris Arcade, and someone will be found on duty each day.

Miller Landick is chairman of the city executive committee and D. W. Darris, secretary.

Democrats are very confident that Burkhardt will be elected Mayor over Harley if the November election since reports are unusually encouraging. Burkhardt's clean cut declaration that the Ohio Electric and all other corporations will look just the same to him as any other element seeking city business made a big hit with voters since they know Burkhardt's dealing with the public have always been fair.

SIX MINUTES BEAT OF THE LIMA TIMES EXTRA THURSDAY

Full Report Carried as Against Abbreviated Story of Contemporary

BIG CROWD AT PARTY

Megaphone Relays Will Continue Each Afternoon
of World's Series

Once more the Lima Times had a big lead over its evening competitor in getting its baseball extra to the street Thursday afternoon. By actual timing the Times extra was on the streets and selling just six minutes before the other evening paper came along with an abbreviated extra.

The Times extra laid it all over the opposition sheet since its extra contained not only a full account of the game, play by play but the score by innings and other interesting details such as runs, hits and errors etc.

The abbreviated and belated extra of the opposition stopped its report at the end of the eighth inning, and nothing at all was said about the important ninth inning. Purchasers of the other paper simply had to guess what happened in the ninth. Time reader, as usual had the full game before them.

Local newspapers in Ohio have made such a bad study of the Lima Times under the new ownership and the old paper, lost the dependence of the people of Northwestern Ohio will continue to grow right along.

The Associated Press dispatches are not only more reliable but they are delivered at a speed that is almost unbelievable.

Big Crowd Again
Hundreds of thousands of enthusiastic fans got their intimation of the progress of the game by means of the Lima Times baseball party in Times Square and Park Street, front of the Times building.

veritable mass of people.
Chief Roush finally sent a squad of policemen who opened up traffic and made it possible for people to get through.

The plays were relayed to the crowd through the megaphone as fast as made and hardly had the umpire's voice died out before Lima people had the word through the Times.

The relay has been by far the fastest ever seen in Lima and often other services were a full inning behind.

Continues Daily
The Times service will continue each afternoon and every fan is invited to be in Times Square promptly at 2 o'clock each afternoon. The service is free and fans can get the plays about as fast as they get them from the $6 seats. Times extras will continue to be the first on the street and give you every detail of the play. Remember, the other extras are abbreviated and belated editions, and you might as well get the real thing as a substitute.

'PINK' IS HOURS OUT OF DATE HERE

People of Lima District Get
News Hours Quicker
Through the Times

Readers of the Lima Times bought the baseball extra with the complete account of the World's Series game on the street. At 10 and 11 o'clock Thursday forenoon, there were no further details of the game to be given.

At 7 o'clock, a long line came to the baseball extra from Toledo purporting to cover the game. Further, they found the pink contained only four innings of the game and stopped there.

Once again was proven that the newspapers give you the same news as any of the big papers and owing to the times it requires to reach Lima from Toledo, Cleveland or Cincinnati, it is as reaching here from the States.

The Lima Times, at the same time, got their intimation of the progress of the game by means of the Associated Press dispatches, and many of the times, possessed by these city papers, and for 6 cents a week all you Lima district papers get the news as above.

Here is your chance to get in and make the hours count. Set your figure on the highest possible ballot, and don't let up until you have it "CINCHED"

(BY ARNOLD H. PRINE)

Well, the Lima Times Big $5,000 Subscription Campaign is now on in earnest, and since the appearance of Thursday's paper containing the list of contestants many more votes have been cast. Some of the candidates have just started to work, others have begun the subscription fight in earnest and within the next 24 hours every contestant will have begun to turn in votes by the thousands. Many are out after subscriptions in earnest. Always the hustling hand wins, so don't wait for your friends to come to you, but go to them either personally, by phone or mail let them know just how anxious you are to win, just who you are, and what you think of the prizes offered. Be enthusiastic; let them know that you are out to win, they will be glad to help you win.

Keep Going
Never get discouraged or downhearted. Always remember that every contestant meets with refusals and rebuffs, and none of them get every subscription they go after. Everyone of the candidates are awake to the opportunity offered and busy; they are using every spare hour possible to the gathering of subscriptions, all are facing the problem of collecting in the new and old subscriptions, and saving the extra votes offered for the next week. No one has such a start but that it could be overcome in a few hours of work, a thousand votes one way or the other means nothing in this campaign when from two to three thousand votes may be secured for one subscription.

Understand Rules
Be sure you understand the rules and conditions. If there are at any time questions in regard to the campaign you do not understand, just phone, write or call the Campaign Manager, and he will gladly explain them to you. The issue of September 24 contains all the rules and conditions, but we will be glad to re-print them at any time should it be necessary.

Work Anywhere
Remember contestants living in one district are not held to their one district when getting subscriptions but may secure them anywhere.

Lima contestants can get subscriptions on the rural routes, or in the outside towns, and the outside candidates may come into Lima and gather them if they wish. You can get subscriptions to the Times, ANYWHERE.

Very Important
Answering one question already asked—the vote offers made from week to week will absolutely be smaller each week. This not only makes it easier to pile up several thousand votes at this time, but also obviates the possibility of questionable conduct on the part of anyone at the close. All may be sure of fair and square treatment. There are 14 fine prizes to be given, and a 10 per cent commission to those who do not win. Everyone will be well paid for their efforts, so now jump in the great campaign and show your colors.

Go After the Extra Vote Offer
These extra votes given for certain attainments, are in addition to the regular scale. Here is the biggest offer made at any time during the campaign. Candidates and new entries may take advantage and start off with a rush. If your name is not in the published list, send in the nomination blank and see that it is there. This is your campaign and one that no one cannot afford to let slip by.

Getting Back to Barter

EVIDENTLY the present economic condition moves the Manchester Guardian to believe that we may return to the day of bartering before a normal status is reached. Seeing that one country needs coal, which is not found under its soil, and another having coal but no wheat, which is raised in abundance in the former country, the Guardian believes it is not so much a question of having money to buy coal or wheat, as it is a simple problem of trading coal for wheat and vice versa. Says the Guardian:

"Money is a very poor thing, and it is only useful on average occasions under average circumstances in average times. In early times people bartered things for things. If you wanted a dress you gave a ham, and if you wanted a ham you gave flour. Then came the institution of money, commonly confused with the thing it buys. But on really big occasions barter again comes into play, and money only serves as a means of counting values.

"Countries, for instance, want coal, but today money will by no means always buy coal. Margarine will buy coal, so will nitrates, so will food. Money to a starving people is of no use except as a mode of reckoning, and only goods in kind can really serve as payment. And so we are really back again at the beginning, when barter was the only means of exchange."

Another Source of Worry

BOSTON PEOPLE have found another source of worry. There may be others in the same boat, but it is only from Boston that we have noted any comment upon this latest source of trouble, but from the way the contributors to the newspapers have been discussing it in that city, it must be serious with them. And here it is: "The English syndicate controls all the diamond mines in South Africa and proposes to advance the price of the gems." Isn't that something terrible to worry about?

Just why the people of Boston should be worrying about it, we do not know. If beans were selling at as much per karat as diamonds, we could understand it; or if colts were cornered by the British, we could still understand it. But diamonds—we suppose the libraries of Boston would furnish sufficient data to enable the Bostonians to see that diamonds are not essential to health, happiness or a passage to heaven.

Of all the things in the world that worry us least away out here in these God's acres, it is the price of diamonds. Whether they are ten cents a quart, or a million dollars a karat, makes little difference in the final analysis. So long as the eyes of our women sparkle with live and affection, we shall not grow morose because the less glittering gems from South Africa have been cornered by the British, or anybody else.

Where the Germans Erred

ADMIRAL SIMS, who probably knows as much about the war, and the German mind during the war, as any other man on earth, doesn't take any stock in the belief that seems to prevail in this country that if the Germans had known America was going into the war they would not have conducted their submarine campaign. The admiral says in a recent article in the World's Work that Germany didn't care anything about America's entrance into the war from a military standpoint; they expected to win before America could get her troops across—and therein lay the most costly error Germany made.

The admiral says that there is an impression here—which all of us know does prevail in some circles—that Germany would never have staked the empire on this desperate final throw had she foreseen that the United States would have mobilized all its men and resources against her. This conviction, he says, is entirely wrong. The Germans did not think they were taking any chances at all; the ultimate result seemed to them to be a certainty. They calculated the available shipping of the allies and the neutral nations; they knew just how much their submarines could sink in each month; and from this they mathematically deduced when the war would end. They did not particularly like adding the United States to their enemies, but this was because they were thinking of conditions after the war, for they would have liked to have had American friendship in the period adjustment. The submarine campaign, they said, would finish the thing in three or four months; certainly in that period the United States could never summon any military power that could affect the result. Thus from a purely military standpoint, Admiral Sims says, the entrance of a hundred million Americans affected them about as much as would a declaration of war from the planet Mars.

A Picturesque Outlaw

D'ANNUNZIO is a picturesque outlaw, and there isn't any other way to correctly designate him. For, however much the Italians may applaud his audacity and his daring, however much any one may worship patriotism in such a character, the fact remains that he is an outlaw, according to every definition of the word.

According to the rules, D'Annunzio diverted government funds entrusted to him in equipping his outfit, and took supplies belonging to the government. He himself defied the government he was sworn to uphold and every one of his followers did the same thing. He defied, and seized the authorities he was supposed to be subject to, and he made illegal arrests of authorities who were in proper command. He has no official standing with any government on earth, not even with the Italian government.

But so far as all of that goes, other men have often done the same thing and gotten away with it. Should D'Annunzio get away with it, he will be a picturesque something else than an outlaw. But the chances are he will get away with nothing. However, the sympathy that will be created for him in Italy will likely save him, if he is captured, or if he surrenders. But he says he went to Fiume to die, and it may be he will be successful in doing so. In which event he may have monuments built to his memory in days to come. As we in this country hung old John Brown and then immortalized him in song and stone—for old John Brown was also a picturesque outlaw, according to the rules.

GOOD EVENING—"There are some people who do not know everything, but they don't know it."

This old cuss Ludendorff is taking up a lot of space with his story about how the Germans lost, and we'll give you to understand that it is not because it is all copyrighted and we can't steal any of it out of a Cincinnati paper, that we think he could have shortened the tale by saying that the best side won.

Every day has its own little bothers, but we are trying to enjoy these few days that are left before some one begins to remind us that there are so many left for Christmas shopping.

A man will eat or not eat, depending on how he likes the stuff, but a woman will eat or not eat, depending on whether she wants to get stouter or reduce.

HAPPY THOUGHT: The old-fashioned, four-piece system of cutting a pie.

OUR BED-TIME STORY

FOR TINY TIMES-DEMOCRAT FOLKS

Just half an hour after the airplane left the ground at Mrs. Satter's on its race to the hospital at Lucerne with Ruth it landed on the hospital grounds. The same trip over the rough mountain roads in a wagon or even an auto would have taken a day or maybe more. Captain Brave leaped out of the plane. The doctor lifted Ruth out of bed, handed her down to him and jumped down beside the captain. Together they hurried to the hospital and the doctor explained to the famous doctors there in a few words what Ruth's sickness was.

Then Ruth was hustled into a room and put into one of the hospital beds. She was so sick when the nurses laid her in bed that she couldn't even tell who her mamma was, which is pretty sick.

When Captain Brave, the doctor and Mrs. Satter came out of the hospital they, Jack, Jane, Lady-dear, and Booh left the plane with the hospital attendants and went to one of the big tourist hotels to arrange for rooms. It was the first time during their trip that the children had stayed in a real big hotel, so they knew they would have a good time while also being kind to Ruth by helping her pass the long hours at the hospital.

The children weren't allowed to visit Ruth for two or three days. Lady-dear told them that the doctors at the hospital had to perform an operation on the little girl so that she might get well again. If you don't know what an operation is I'm afraid you'll have to ask mother or father to tell you. They'll know that it was a pretty serious thing for little Ruth and that Mrs. Satter had a good reason to look awfully sad until it was all over and the doctors said that Ruth was out of danger and would soon be well and able to play around.

When the nurses finally said that folks besides her mother could see Ruth, Jack and Jane, with Lady-dear, went to the hospital and for half an hour the little folks talked just as fast as they could. Jack and Jane had many things to tell Ruth about Lucerne and Ruth told them how it seemed to be "cooped up" in a hospital with many sick folks in other rooms near you. The nurses had told her many of the cutest stories you can imagine and she told them to Jack and Jane.

There was one about a little blind boy who had come to the hospital just a few weeks before Ruth came. He hadn't been able to see since he was two years old. He was seven when he came to the hospital. You'll have to figure out how many years he had been blind. The famous doctors at the hospital, with their wonderful instruments, fixed his eyes so that in a couple of weeks he could notice great big things between him and the light. And when he left the hospital he knew that as soon as his eyes got real strong he would be able to see everything and even read.

FAUROT—"THE CAPTAIN AND THE KIDS"

"The Captain and the Kids" is coming to the Faurot Saturday afternoon and night.

It is a musical farce built for laughing purposes only with a cast of thirty people mostly prize winning girls who are real singers and dancers. It abounds with funny situations and 18 big tuneful song bits.

"The Captain and the Kids" is taken from that famous cartoon now current in the New York World and other leading papers, by Dirks the famous cartoonist, and every character in its living form is presented before you, the antics and novelty specialties of the two kids are nothing but laugh producers.

The plot deals with the trials and tribulations of the Captain and the Inspector who are rivals for the hand of the widow. The charm of the play lies in the crisp dialogue as well as its comedy situations there is a carload of special scenery and effects along with new costumes, new dances, and new novelties to please the multitudes, on a whole it is meant to create laughter and good cheer and fulfills this mission admirably.

FAUROT—PAULINE FREDERICK

The latest release on the Paramount Success Series is a five-part version of the Hall Caine story of Rome and London, "The Eternal City," featuring Pauline Frederick.

In several ways this new edition of a picture of three years ago stands revival with considerable credit to itself. First of all is the fact that the outdoor scenes in Rome and London were taken in these famous cities themselves. In Rome, the views of the outside of the Vatican and of St. Peter's and the scenes at the Coliseum should give the picture unique interest. It is also thoroughly well acted by the star and a supporting cast whose leading members consist of Thomas Holding, Frank Loree, Fuller Melish, George Majeroni, Lottie Alter and George Stillwell.

The story is one of those high pressure romances that Hall Caine delights in writing. The plot has been condensed into five parts without losing the thread of events. A fictitious Pope is one of the characters. The love story concerns David Rossa and Donna Roma, one an abandoned infant who becomes a power in Italian politics; the other a beautiful girl, a foster sister of David's, who is known as the mistress of Baron Bonelli, but is reunited to the man she had known and loved as a child.

The program does not lack for other attractive features. They include charming Bruce Scenic gems, the Topical Digest, a cartoon comedy and Mr. and Mrs. Carter De Haven in a new comedy, "Close to Nature." Last times tonight.

ORPHEUM

The bill for the last half of the Orpheum is dispensing 5 good acts that met with hearty approval at the opening show yesterday.

Tom Foolery and Pal opened with many novel juggling tricks and were well liked.

Lucas and Logan builders of polio comedy live up to their billing; they put their number over to entire satisfaction.

The Sorrento Quintette with good voices render a number of selections from opera that made a hit. Earle and Bartlett in a merry exchange of patter drew much laughter.

Sonia Baraban and Chas. Grohs, offer a terpsichorean novelty with all special scenery, they are skilled dancers and went over big, this bill runs over Sunday, with Bessie Barriscale in "Her Purchase Price" as an added feature to the vaudeville Sunday.

AT THE LYRIC

Stage success used by Mazimova for the screen in "Out of the Fog," the latest masterpiece in which Mazimova, the distinguished Russian actress, is being seen at the Lyric, has been adapted for the screen from her greatest stage success, "Ception Shoals," a powerful drama of the sea written by H. Austin Adams.

This play, which was produced at the Thirty-Ninth Street Theatre, New York, and which ran for two seasons, created world-wide comment both for its unusual and elemental

In "Out of the Fog," Mazimova has carried out with faithful exactness the story which is even more convincing in picture form than it was in the more restricted confines of the stage.

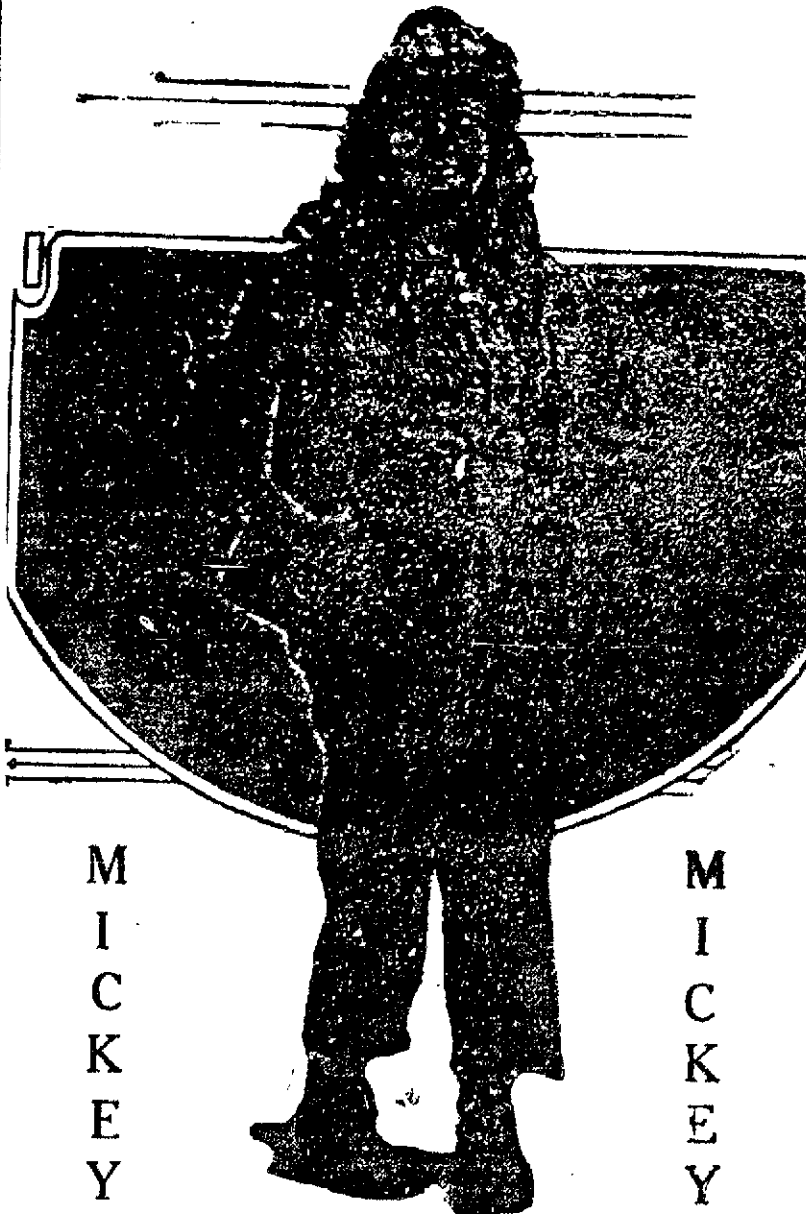

Recommendations have been made to the Australian government by various scientific and industrial organizations that there should be a central commonwealth organization to collaborate with state and local authorities in promoting the construction of good roads throughout the commonwealth.

Slim Sallee Finally Gotten Revenge on Sox—Betting is Changed to Odds on Reds—Ohio Horse Captures.

BOXING-SPORTS

WHAT GOOD IS A HIT IF YOU CAN'T MAKE SCORES?

Chicago May Be Long On Swatting the Pill, But They Are 'Way Behind When It Comes to Getting the Counters

(BY JAMES F. BURBA)

Yesterday's contest, when the Reds walloped the stockings off the Sox, contained a wonderful little moral, too: It isn't what you get, but what you do with it after you get it. That is illustrated by the fact that the Sox succeeded in getting to Mr. Sallee for ten safeties, which netted them only two runs, while the Reds were only able to get four hits off the offerings of Lefty Williams, but made every hit count a run. And once more, the great dope bucket, which all the eastern sport writers filled, has been upset.

There was nothing "overly" extraordinary about the yesterday struggle, except that the Reds captured the Reds did not have another Walter Roush in the box to slap out a brace of triples. But then they did not need them.

Before the series started, it was the large contention of which is the most valuable asset to a team, hitters or fielders. Well, if you have a lot of fielders backed up with a poor (?) bunch of swatters like the Reds, then we'll be forced to choose the fielders.

Hits Go For Naught

We are ready to concede that Chicago has the heavy hitters. But what have they done? Oh yes they have swelled their batting averages during the series, but that has not brought honor to their team. On the other hand, the "poor pounders" of the Reds have hit when a hit was needed and they made each hit count. Another thing the hits made by the swatters of the American League team are so scattered that they go for naught. If this kind of playing continues Harry Herrmann is due to lose money, for this series will only go five games.

Two years ago on a bright and sunny day at Comiskey Park in the windy city of Chicago, the same gang of pastimers now performing with the Sox handled a certain Mr. Sallee a drubbing. A few days later they drove him from the mound. Yesterday, this said Mr. Sallee secured the revenge he sought. With the exception of the seventh inning the long, tall forkhander had the lowly Sox eating from his southern extremity. Even in the so called seventh, he was not in a great deal of danger. In fact none of the fans receiving the game play by play in front of The Times Building even feared for the safety of the Reds.

Full of Confidence

If ever a team journeyed to a strange city to play ball and felt full of confidence, that gang should be the Reds. Not only have they twice in succession walloped the Sox, but they have beaten the two best bets Kid Gleason had. Wednesday, the men of Moran were not contented with simply winning from Cicotte, but they could not rest until the grand old man was driven, heart broken, from the mound. Eddie, naturally had an alibi. Yes, he said the hitting of Rath unnerved him.

Take from us, boy, it was not the hitting of Rath that unnerved the Frenchman, it was the hitting of the entire Red aggregation. The way those lads slapped that pill around the field was quite enough to unnerve anyone, including the Kid.

Then yesterday, Gleason gently placed his next best bet in the box in an effort to stop the Reds. Did he stop them? All together now—WE'LL SAY HE DIDN'T. No air, there was no stop in those Redlegs. True enough, they did not get the swats off Williams that were gleaned off Cicotte but they hit him so hard and sudden that another funeral dirge was chanted in the city which Mayor Thompson made famous.

Claude Was Generous

It was partly due to the generosity of Claude that the Reds succeeded in copping the second game of the series, for he issued transportation to six Redlegs. Three of these passes were issued in the fatal fourth when the Reds grabbed three of their runs. Then Williams got generous in the sixth, and allowed Roush to take his own time about getting to first. Did Roush stop at first? Now all together—that's enough of that you know he didn't. On the other hand, he told the score boy to hang up another tally.

We will bet the only good bat we have that it was a sore and weakly looking gang of Chicago scribes that fited out of the press box following the contest. They were rabid when the Sox lost the first contest, and the losing of the second game is quite enough to make them want to drink some of the water out of Chicago River.

Well the Reds and Sox are crossing bats at Comiskey Park this afternoon, and Gleason is depending upon Kerr to stop the onslaught of those Romping Reds. The "Miracle Man" will place Eller on the mound in an endeavor to repeat the performances of the past two days.

A day or so before the series started we asked the fans of Lima to carry around a horseshoe, a four leaf clover or a rabbit's foot. We want to thank the locals for complying with that request and ask that they continue to burden themselves until the white flag and the crepe are hung out in Chicago.

SOX OUTFIELDERS AND UTILITY MEN WHO HAVE BEEN WORKING OVERTIME CHASING FLIES AND HARD HIT GROUNDERS OFF THE BATS OF VARIOUS RED PERFORMERS.

TODAY'S GAME MAY DECIDE OUTCOME OF ANNUAL EVENT

Reds are Confident They Will Return To Cincy Sunday Night With Classic Tucked Away in Their Gloves

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Carrying a two game lead the Cincinnati Reds today invaded the home territory of the Chicago White Sox for the third contest of the world series—the game many baseball men believe virtually will decide whether the American League pennant winners are to be serious contenders for the championship or face an overwhelming handicap during the remainder of the series.

The two teams, accompanied by some 2,000 Cincinnati rooters arrived here early today on more than a dozen trains, the Reds confident that they will return to Ohio Sunday night possessors of baseball's highest honors and the White Sox determined to overcome their handicap while playing on their home grounds.

A few light clouds were visible this morning, but according to the weather forecast there will be no rain until night, giving promise that the third game of the series would not be interfered with by the weather. Forecast is "partly cloudy and somewhat cooler followed by showers at night."

Sox Still Hopeful
Despite the fact that the White Sox, 5 to 5 favorites before the series started, lost two straight games to the National Leaguers, the followers of Comiskey's team were confident that today's contest would be the beginning of a winning streak for their favorites and fans began gathering at the baseball park last night, waiting in line to purchase the general admission tickets on sale at 9 o'clock this morning.

In order to prevent tickets falling into the hands of scalpers and to expedite the sale, special arrangements were made by the club management. Each prospective purchaser was required to have the exact change for his ticket ready, the tickets selling for $1.10 and pavilion space for $2.20, including tax. No person was allowed to purchase more than one ticket and after receiving the passbook every one was required to go directly into the park. Ten thousand bleacher tickets and 6,500 for the pavilions were placed on sale.

May Be Veteran

Discussion of the series centered this morning largely on who would be given the pitching assignment by Manager Gleason of the Sox. Although Manager Gleason, announced last night in Cincinnati that he would probably select Dick Kerr, the sensational young left hander, there was a general feeling that the youngster would not be called on at such a critical time and that Gleason would switch to one of his veterans before game time.

Kerr Has the Call

Eddie Cicotte, leading hurler of the American League, who was pounded from the box in the fourth inning of the first game, and Urban Faber, hero of 1917 series are considered the foremost probabilities. Faber, however, has pitched only in different ball this season. Kerr is facing his first world's series and has just finished his first big league season. The fact that he is a southpaw, however, may bring him the assignment, because of the manner in which "Lefty" Williams yesterday held down the Reds' hits despite the loss of the game.

For the Reds, Manager Moran undoubtedly will pick "Red" Eller, or Ray Fisher.

Reds Now Favorites

In what little betting was reported today on the series the Reds were 8 to 5 favorites. On today's game there were some bets at even money, but in most cases the White Sox followers demanded odds.

SECOND GAME FEATURES

Steady and effective pitching of "Slim" Sallee.

Wonderful catch made by Eddie Roush off Ray Felsch in sixth inning, killing off two runs.

Reds' rally in the third round, scoring three runs on two hits and three passes.

Larry Kopf's three-bagger with two men on and his fine defensive work.

Wildness of Claude Williams.

Gandhi's failure to deliver in the ninth twice with a runner on third and only one out.

Groh's base running.

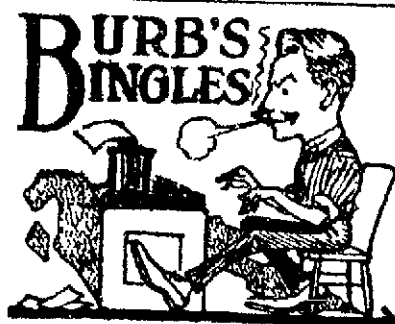

Fine work of the White Sox outfield.

Clever defensive playing of the Reds in spite of two errors.

Hap Felsch's two hard drives killed by Roush and Groh.

Weaver's hitting.

Both White Sox pitching aces defeated.

What is the use of getting safe swats when you can't score?

Eighteen long innings and not an earned run, is the record of the Sox.

It was only through Greisew's generosity that Gleason's gang got those two tallies yesterday.

And now the Chicago scribes are giving Luck the credit for winning the games.

They are simply playing the part of the dying goose.

Death has certainly shown its sting to them.

Saith the Sage of Hawg Creek: "You can never tell how far a frog can jump by the way it croaks, nor a baseball team's ability by the writers who back it."

Slim Sallee has at last gotten revenge for the walloppings the Sox gave him in 1917.

That Windy City gang never had a chance against the elongated forkhander.

And now comes the announcement that a "Little World Series" will be staged in Lima.

Moran believes in the hit and run play.

We'll say he does, plenty of hits and plenty of runs.

The youngster Kerr is due to flunk today.

Will it be another game gone to the dogs?

Lima High Will Meet Findlay

A strong football aggregation from Findlay will journey to Lima to morrow and endeavor to trample upon the Central High outfit, which is full of confidence as a result of its recent victory over the Delphos eleven. The game will be staged at the College Park. Findlay is reputed to be one of the best school teams in the state, and the locals will have to step high wide and handsome if they cop the contest.

While Central High is battling with the Findlay outfit, the South Siders will be bucking Bowling Green in that city. This is the first game of the season for the southern lads and they bid fair to have one of the strongest eleven in the history of the city.

PARIS BLUE BEARD JOKES WITH JUDGE

Held for Disappearance of 1 Women, Frenchman
Remains Mystery

PARIS.—Little headway has been made in the case of Landru, "the Gambais Bluebeard," as the French papers term him, who is charged by the police with being responsible for the disappearance of thirteen women to whom he had promised marriage.

The police have been investigating for four months, and four times a week Landru is taken from the prison of La Sante to the office of Judge Bonin, whose questions as to the fate of the thirteen women elicit from Landru evasive and, at times, witty responses. They have got as far as sweetheart No. 3 and Landru's flippant replies have nearly driven the judge to nervous prostration.

Recently the judge announced that he was going for a holiday. Landru immediately chipped in with the request that he, too, be permitted to take a vacation, as the regime of La Sante did not agree with him. "Might he not be allowed to go to his villa at Gambais and hold himself at the disposition of the court?" It was from Gambais villa that Landru's future spouses disappeared, never to be heard of since, according to police.

"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS"

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt better and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and been helped by it."—Mrs. MARGARET NESS, 1846 E. Hazard St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, headache, dizziness or "the blues" should not rest until they have given this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special suggestions. The result of its long experience is at your service.

TOMORROW

Is a sealed package and no one knows what it contains.

If it brings only good things they will become common and lose flavor.

Sorrow makes joy sweeter, rest is more enjoyed when it follows hard work.

A savings account is more appreciated because it represents labor, economy and thought. It is more valuable than an equal amount of money received as a gift.

Try it. Have an account of your own. Make some sacrifice to keep it growing.

be heard of since, according to police.

Judge Bonin asked Landru how it was that his son, who assisted him in removing the furniture of three of his fiancées, did not make queries when moving that of Mrs. Guillin, the third removal of furniture in six months. "Did he not find it strange?" asked the judge.

"My children obey my orders; they do not discuss them," responded Landru. "I have misgivings as to the way you bring up your children, judge," he added sententiously.

Landru contended that he had an order from Mrs. Guillin, drawn up in legal form, giving him full power of attorney to administer her property. "This document was not found among your papers; therefore, I must conclude that it never existed," said the judge.

"And as you and your police, with all the means of your command, are unable to find Mrs. Guillin, I must, therefore, conclude that she never existed," countered Landru.

Not one vestige of the missing woman has been found and the charge of murder against Landru is growing weaker. There is no "corpus delicti." The villa at Gambais has been ransacked by the police and ponds in the vicinity of the villa have been drained, but it would appear that the women have vanished into thin air. To questions as to the probable whereabouts of the missing women and his relations with them prior to their disappearance, Landru invariably replied: "I am a man of the world. I cannot betray the confidence of women."

LABOR BUREAUS TO CLOSE

WASHINGTON, October 3.—The United States employment service today notified its federal directors to close the state federal employment offices on October 10th, because of lack of funds.

Constipation.

The beginning of almost every serious disorder is constipation. If you want to enjoy good health keep your bowels regular. This is best accomplished by proper diet and exercise, but sometimes a medicine is needed and when that is the case you will find Chamberlain's Tablets an excellent remedy. They are mild and gentle in their action, easy and pleasant to take. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

14½ gold wrist watch was reported to the police by Ed Lutzger, 517 West Second Street, and Henry Hirschbalt an immigrant, was arrested for the robbery at Middle Point and returned to this city before midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Lutzger were away from home for about an hour and upon returning at about 8 o'clock found that the house had been entered and the above-named articles taken. They immediately reported the theft to the police and measures were taken to locate the guilty party.

A young girl was questioned at the police station Thursday morning concerning the alleged theft of a watch, and the taking of some money from a pocketbook which was claimed she had found. As no charges have been made in the case, the name is not mentioned.

BIG PUTNAM FAIR NEXT WEEK EVENT

OTTAWA, Oct. 3.—Everything is in readiness for the big Putnam County Fair. Many privilege men will be there. The race program is full, entries larger than ever before. Many new features have been added. Fair is on Oct. 7-11. On Thursday, Victory Day, there will be three bands, Hamler, Kalida, and Harts' Girl Band, Hicksville. Three races daily. Schools in the county close with the Wednesday afternoon session for the week. Thursday is soldiers and children's day, when all soldiers, their wives, mothers or widows will be admitted free. All school children admitted free. Extra program on this day.

During the month of September and October, 64 years ago, chills and fever were so prevalent in Putnam County that scarcely a family escaped from having a number of cases in the house. Since the clearing and draining of the country, chills are almost unknown.

Corn cutters receive 25 cents per shock, and half the fodder. Seven teams will demonstrate Domestic Science at the Fair, as follows: Vaughnsville, Ft. Jennings, Leipsic, Ottawa, Columbus Grove. The poultry club for boys and girls will make a fine showing.

RAILWAY SHOPMEN ARE BADLY SCALDED

VAN WERT, Oct. 3.—James Leiser and Millard Graham, employees of the Cincinnati Northern shops, were painfully scalded when a plug in an engine blew out and allowed hot water and steam to strike their faces. The men were screwing in a washout plug in an engine in which there was 30 pounds of steam pressure.

Hearing of the case of the state against Adam Wise, started yesterday by Deputy State Fire Marshal Harsberger, has been postponed until Nov. 6, at 9 a. m., the conditions of postponement being that Mr. Wise shall within the next 30 days make the necessary changes at his mill to conform to the state fire prevention code. Mr. Wise appeared in court this morning and through his attorney, H. L. Conn, formally agreed to make the changes.
